LOST @ CHRISTMAS

Emily is lost. Really lost. Abby never thought that the creepy girl from Chemistry class would accept her invitation to a church party. But when Emily accepted, Abby agreed to give her a ride. Only... Abby forgot to pick Emily up. Now Emily is nowhere to be found, not at the police station, not at the mall, nowhere. Where is she?

This musical for students has a message for everyone: Jesus came to earth to save everyone and not just those who look like they deserve it. The song "God Could Never Love You" states the theme: "God could never love you more than He does now. He could never love you any less. His love is never measured by your love for him, or by your faithfulness." There are 10 speaking characters (some could double) and a chorus. Perfect for ensembles, but works just as well for student choirs.

STATE ROAD 47

Three parables of Jesus (from the Gospel of Luke) that happened "along the road" are retold with hilarious characters and memorable music. The parable of the sower is told using a farmer and his wife with "birds, plants, and thorns."

The Good Samaritan uses "50's" characters, some pious church ladies, a self-righteous evangelist, and Sam...the biker...who is really the neighbor. Finally, the Prodigal Son story includes some tough streetwise kids, some "pigs," and a nerdy tax collector. For students or mixed-age cast.

Riches 2 RAGS

RICHERS 2 RAGS

The story of Job in the Bible has always been one of inspiration. Job lost it all, his riches, his livelihood, his children . . . and still he praised God. Even though Job sometimes questioned God's ways, he never questioned God's presence. This musical is set in modern day, but the elements and characters in the story are very true to the scriptural account. A Two-Act Musical Running Time: 90 Minutes. For mixed-age cast, or students.
