

THE OFFERING...WHO NEEDS IT?

By Nan Allen

Theme: Stewardship/Giving

Scripture References: Psalms 95:1-2; Psalm 96:8 Psalm 143:10; 2
Corinthians 8:5; 2 Timothy 2:15

Characters: Three (either gender)

Tone: Light to Serious

Synopsis: Three readers begin to “perform” a reader’s theatre piece about praise when one of them gets a little stuck on the part about bringing an offering.

Running Time: Two to three minutes

Set: None

Props: Scripts

A reader’s theatre piece that breaks character and turns into a conversation about giving.

(reading....)

#1: Come let us sing for joy

#2: Amen!

#3: Come, let us shout aloud to the rock of our salvation.

#2: Praise God!!

#1: Come, let us go before Him with thanksgiving.

#2: Hallelujah!

#3: Come let us extol Him with music and song.

#2: Extol him!!!

#1: Come, let us bring an offering.

(beat, as #2 looks puzzled)

#1: I said, “Come, let us bring an offering.”