

WHO WANTS TO BE A MILLION-DOLLAR MOM?

By Nan Allen

Theme: Motherhood

Scripture References: Deuteronomy 6:4-9; Proverbs 31:10-31; Proverbs 22:6;

Characters: Six (women)

Regina Philpott – hostess of game show

Contestant #1- Madge

Contestant #2 - Sally

Contestant #3 - Jacqueline

Contestant #4 - Brenda

Narrator

Tone: Humorous

Synopsis: A spoof on the popular game show, “Who Wants To Be A Millionaire”, this shows that the difference between the world’s view of motherhood is very different from God’s view.

Running Time: Four to Five minutes

Set: chairs (2)

Props:

3x5 cards (3) with game questions

NARRATOR: Ladies and gentleman, welcome once again to the hottest show around “Who Wants to Be A Million Dollar Mom?” with our host Regina Philpott. (applauds and encourages audience to join the applause.)

(enter Regina)

REGINA: Good evening, welcome to the show. Tonight we have contestants who hopefully will answer correctly questions about being a good mother. You know the rules. Answer the question and get 100 points toward being the “Million Dollar Mom”. Our first contestant tonight is Madge from Des Moines. Madge...

(enter Madge)(applause)

REGINA: Hello, Madge.

MADGE: Hi, Regina. I’m so excited about being on your show. And I’m sort of nervous, too.

REGINA: Well, just relax now and answer the first question.

MADGE: Okay.